The CMI's

The congregation of the Carmelites of Mary Immaculate is the first indigenous religious order of Catholic priests and brothers founded in Kerala in 1831, by Saint Kuriakose Elias Chavara, an eminent educationalist and social reformer of the nineteenth century. The congregation took up education as a service to the nation from the time of its founding fathers. With a membership of around 3000, CMI Congregation renders its service to humanity in educational, social, health care and other activities aiming at the integral development of the society.

Mary Matha College shares the CMI vision of education and we aim at the holistic development of the students with the Motto: “Committed to Excellence”.

The secret of the success of our educational institutions is a community of teachers who are committed to their vocation, professionally competent, morally upright, just and humane in dealings, and who grow in the holistic vision of education.
